CPS HUMAN RESOURCE SERVICES ADDS TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS Three New Members Welcomed

Sacramento, CA - Last week in Sacramento, California the CPS Human Resource Services \(CPS\) Board of Directors formally announced membership for three new agencies.

Representatives from Montgomery College's Office of Human Resources in Maryland, began serving in June 2009. The State of Georgia's Department of Human Resources (DHR) joined the board in September. The Human Resource Department of the City of Dallas, Texas began serving this month.

"CPS has a reputation for progressive thinking in the public sector HR community," said David Etheridge, City of Dallas human resources director and new CPS board member. "I look forward to working with CPS management to help guide the organization."

Rosa Waymon, human resource director for Georgia's DHR, and Lynda von Bargaen, deputy chief HRD for Montgomery College will represent their agencies.

"Our board members represent a wide spectrum of renowned public agencies from across the United States," said Jerry Greenwell, CPS chief executive officer. East Bay Municipal Utility District in Oakland, California; the City of North Las Vegas, Nevada; the City of Anaheim, California; the City and County of San Francisco, California; the City University of New York; Hayward Unified School District, California; Sacramento County, California and California's State Personnel Board are also members of the CPS Board of Directors.
